How to open a Futures/Spot account

If you do not have a Binance.com account, go Binance.com or click HERE to go directly to the registration page. Then follow these steps:

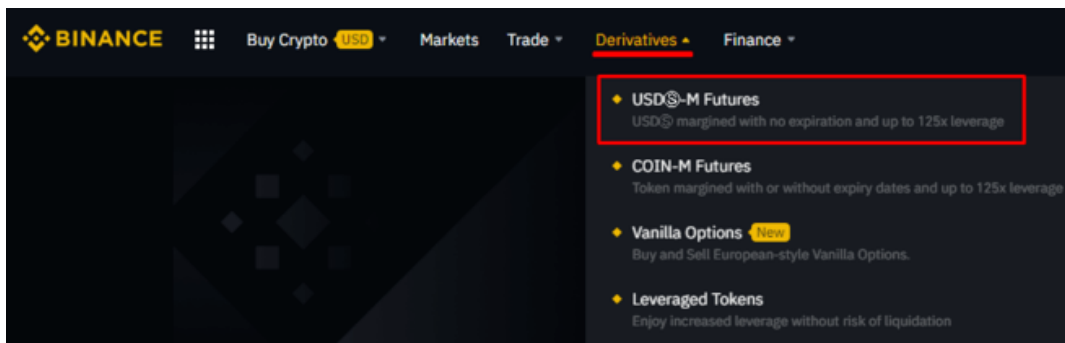

- Enter your email address and create a safe password. If you have a referral ID, paste it into the referral ID box.

The screenshot shows the 'Create a free account' page on Binance. At the top, it says 'Create a free account' and 'Welcome to Binance'. Below this, there are two tabs: 'Email' (selected) and 'Mobile'. The form includes an 'Email' input field, a 'Password' input field with a strength indicator, and a 'Referral ID (Optional)' input field. There is a checkbox for 'I have read and agree to the Terms of Service. Binance's Terms'. A yellow 'Create Account' button is at the bottom, and a link for 'Already registered? Log In' is below it.

- When you are ready, click on Create account.
- You will receive a verification email shortly. Follow the instructions in the email to complete your registration.

Next, log in to your Binance.com account, move your mouse to the bar at the top of the page, and click on USD(S)-M Futures.

Click on the Open now button to activate your Binance.com Futures account. And that's it. You're ready to trade!
